Paris (Le Havre), France

Located in the province of Normandy, Le Havre is the kick-off point to Paris and the beaches of Normandy. This commercial port serves as a terminal for ferries that cross the English Channel. The city itself has been rebuilt, after having been completely destroyed during World War II.

One of the most popular tourist attractions of the area is the beach of Normandy where the Allied troops landed to start the end of the war. Still, Normandy is popular for many other reasons -churches, castles and monuments remind visitors of the past splendors and riches of the area.

Paris

About three hours away from Le Havre is Paris – the “City of Lights” – capital and largest city in France. This beautiful and artistic city, situated in the north-central part of France, is divided into two banks by the River Seine. The North Bank was historically the area where Royalty and the wealthy merchant-class lived, and today it is the government and commercial district. The South Bank, with its image of an intellectual and bohemian playground, is the site where the University was founded.

Shore Excursions

Amsterdam Sightseeing, Canal Cruise & Schiphol Airport Transfer:

Drive past the Royal Palace, New Church and other landmarks of this ancient trading city. Relax and enjoy the views on a 1-hour cruise down the city's historic waterways. Enjoy the convenience of direct transportation to Schiphol Airport for your flight home.

Shuttle Service Information

The local tourism office have advised us that they will run a complimentary shuttle continuously between the ship and Le Havre downtown for guests wishing to go ashore on their own. Shuttles will depart regularly every 30-45 minutes; travel time is 15 minutes depending on traffic. Last shuttle bus from city center is at 5:45pm. Shuttle Service will stop running from 1:15pm to 2:00pm due to local regulations. Le Havre downtown is approximately 20 minutes walking from the port. This service is not the responsibility of the ship and is operated solely by the local tourism office.

Information

Helpful Health Information: Wash Your Hands Often

Medical experts tell us that the best way to prevent colds, flu, or gastrointestinal illnesses such as a Norovirus that can be transferred easily through person-to-person contact – is to simply wash your hands thoroughly with soap and warm water after rest room breaks and before eating anything. Should you experience any gastrointestinal illness, please call the ship's medical facility at 4500 for a complimentary consultation and treatment if necessary.

Important Deadline

Gratuities: For any inquiries regarding your gratuities, please visit or contact Guest Relations. Please be advised that no changes can be applied to gratuities after the deadline, Saturday, June 20th at 12 Noon.

Transfers To Amsterdam Schiphol Airport

Transfers to Amsterdam Airport are available at the Guest Relations Desk, for $34 per person. The deadline for purchasing transfers is Paris (Le Havre), June 19th. Transfers are available to those guests with flights after 10:30am. Guests using this service will not have to collect their luggage at the cruise ship terminal as their luggage will be taken directly to the airport, where guests will collect it prior to checking in for their flight. We strongly recommend this service as we have been advised that there are very limited taxis available at the port and this causes long lines and an extended waiting time up to two hours.
